Good Morning,

As per the directions on resumption of civil motions in Ottawa, your motion would have to indicate either if it's ex-parte, on consent, unopposed or that all parties agreed for the motion to be heard in writing. In order to do this, you will need to serve the notice of motion.

Once served, if there is no opposition with regards to the motion be heard in writing, you are to file your motion record and a clean draft order.

Thank you
