Dear Lili,

Yesterday, Krystal Skof breached the Trust of a Beneficiary by sharing a Requisition for an Internal Review with a third party without her prior consent or Blessing. This email is to advise You of Your legal and lawful obligations to that Beneficiary, as that person has now also been Trusted to My care by God. God does not make mistakes, Krystal Skof made a mistake, and God made no mistake in assuring I was the One to receive it. A Trust relationship is legally and lawfully binding by Way of demonstrable causality. You have a copy of My Trust Instrument on Record for Me, Colleen Lynch is now the first named Beneficiary of the Kingdom of Heaven Found a Sean Trust.

As Colleen Lynch's personal information has been Trusted to My care, and because You have demonstrated such magnificent gross negligence in Your administrative duties in My experiences, I can relate to Colleen's request for an internal review. I also have every reason to believe she is correct in her assertion that Your determination was both incorrect and unreasonable, so now I Wish to know if Colleen Lynch was satisfied with the results of the internal review she was requesting.

You have a legal and lawful obligation to advise Colleen Lynch that You have Breached her Trust, and that documents Trusted to Your care were sent to the wrong Man in error. Colleen's information has been Trusted to My care by God, so My duty is to make sure Colleen was Given Notice that her Trust was Breached. You may know I have a Spiritual and Moral obligation to Act in Colleen Lynch's best interest, but Colleen does not know that. You have a legal and lawful obligation to advise her of Your error. I Will be as King Colleen Lynch what time she received Notice that her Trust was Breached and delivered to Me by accident. You Will also let her know I Wish to know whether or not she is satisfied with the results of the internal review, and if she is not and Benefits were not restored to her, You Will do so immediately, and You Will Give her a Writ of guarantee Signed by Your office that they Will never be revoked again so long as she is Living, she is a Beneficiary of the Kingdom of Heaven Found a Sean, and entitled to whatever Gifts God can make available to her. You Will Give her as much as You are able to provide including all 'extra's for phone, cable, and an entertainment allowance, as there does not seem to be an allowance for the pursuit of happiness, which is a basic human right.

Now... Again, I am going to be as King of Colleen when she receives this Notice of Breach of Trust and what You are going to do to correct the wrong You have done. That Will take care of the Colleen Lynch Issue in a Way that Benefits every One.

Love and Blessings,
King Sean, House von Dehn,
Hand of Stephen,
The Kingdom of Heaven Found a Sean
