Hello,

The Bracebridge Courthouse acknowledges receipt of your email correspondence dated March 21, 2023, March 22, 2023, April 6, 2023, and April 21, 2023.

Ministry officials are not permitted to provide you with legal advice. A lawyer is in the best position to advise you about any legal rights and responsibilities. If you do not have a lawyer, you may be able to find one through the following services:

- Law Society of Ontario (LSO) Law Society Referral Service \(LSRS\) for individuals residing in Ontario who need assistance with a legal matter. Through this service, the LSO can provide you with the name of a lawyer who will provide a free initial consultation up to 30 minutes to help determine your rights and options. If you decide to retain a lawyer, their normal fees and disbursements would apply.
- LSO directory of its licensed professionals in Ontario: Lawyer and Paralegal Directory.
- JusticeNet, a federally incorporated not-for profit organization whose aim is to complement legal aid and pro bono law programs in making justice more accessible to Canadians. Under JusticeNet, lawyers reduce their hourly fees on a portion of their practice to address the unmet legal needs of low- and middle-income members of their communities. For more information, visit the JusticeNet website.
- Pro Bono Ontario (PBO), a not-for-profit organization that offers summary legal advice and brief legal services (e.g., assistance with court form completion). These services may be accessed through PBO's free legal advice hotline at 1-855-255-7256.

The tone of your correspondence, including the personal comments and threats directed at named court staff is inappropriate and will not be tolerated. We ask that you cease making personal and/or inappropriate comments about court staff immediately. You must also stop using abusive or inappropriate language in any communication with court staff, including communications in writing (such as email) and by telephone.

We will not be responding to any further form of communication related to this matter. We will only reply to any new inquiries that relate to new or ongoing court proceedings, but we will not respond if the communication is abusive, aggressive or inappropriate in any way.

Thank you,

Bracebridge Courthouse filing office

I will not accept accusations that any email are unacceptable or 'abusive' to Court staff unless You cite the alleged accusations. I am tired of baseless allegations being made by a Court that is allegedly unbiased and impartial. Amazing how whenever You demonstrate such incompetence and inappropriate emails of Your own, there is never any officer of the Court taking accountability for the email.

If You are going to make threats regarding My behaviour or character, You best Give Me Your name. Courts don't speak, People do. Who am I tall King with and what language was inappropriate?
